EVALUATION (OPTIONAL)

Please write whatever you think is important about this student, including a description of academic and personal characteristics. We are particularly interested in the applicant's intellectual promise, motivation, maturity, integrity, independence, originality, initiative, leadership potential, capacity for growth, special talents, enthusiasm, concern for others, respect accorded by faculty, and reaction to setbacks. We welcome information that will help us to differentiate this student from others. We especially welcome a broad-based assessment, and encourage you to consider describing or addressing:

- The applicant's academic, extracurricular and personal characteristics.
- Relevant context for the applicant's performance and involvement, such as particularities of family situation or responsibilities, after-school work obligations, sibling childcare or other circumstances, either positive or negative.
- Observed problematic behaviors, perhaps separable from academic performance, that the admission committee should explore further.

While this evaluation is a required part of every School Report, we recognize that some school counselors face formidable challenges. If your professional circumstances render you unable to provide substantive written comments about this student, and if you are unable to substitute another school official's statement in its place, please help us better understand your situation by checking one or both of the statements below:

- ☐ I do not have sufficient personal knowledge of this student.
- ☐ The demands of my counseling load do not afford me sufficient time.

Please note that if a box is checked, we may contact the student, explain that the box was checked, and request a substitute academic recommendation from a teacher.
